

Final Project

Instruction Sheet

Course: Research Methods & Engineering Literacy

Course Code: U14M62158.01

Instructor: Dr. Ali Turab

Submission Deadline: 30 November 2025 (23:59 CST)

Submission Format: Upload to the designated online platform → Folder: Final Project

File Name: FinalProject_StudentID.zip

1. Project Overview

This project will evaluate your ability to read, analyze, and communicate scientific work effectively. You are required to review a selected set of research papers from top-ranked journals and write a mini-review based on your understanding. You will also prepare a short recorded presentation summarizing your work.

2. Project Components

Part 1: Mini-Review Paper (5–7 pages, PDF)

Each student must:

1. Select seven-ten (7-10) published research papers related to your chosen research field.
 - The papers must be published in Zone I, Zone II, or Zone III journals according to the Chinese Academy of Sciences (CAS) ranking (you can check rankings using the shared mini-program).
2. Formulate a unique research topic based on the selected papers.
3. Write a mini-review paper with the following sections:

Section	Length	Description
Title	—	Should clearly reflect the topic of your review.
Name, Affiliation & Institutional Email	—	Include your full name, university, school, and email address.
Abstract	150–200 words	Summarize the purpose, key findings, and conclusions of your review.
Keywords	4–6 words	Provide 4–6 relevant keywords describing your topic.
Introduction	0.5–1 page	Explain the background, motivation, and scope of your topic.
Background	1–2 pages	Summarize the main concepts and findings from the selected papers.
Key Findings and Discussion	2–3 pages	Compare results, highlight similarities/differences, and discuss how the studies relate to your formulated topic.

Section	Length	Description
Conclusion	0.5–1 page	Summarize your insights and possible future directions.
References	—	Include only the seven-ten (7-10) selected papers. No additional references are allowed.

Part 2: Presentation and Video

Prepare a PowerPoint presentation (.ppt) and a 4–6 minute recorded video (.mp4) summarizing your mini-review.

The presentation should include:

- Your topic and its importance
- The main methods and results from the reviewed papers
- Key insights and your own summary or suggestions

3. Submission Format

Create a folder named: FinalProject_StudentID

This folder must contain:

1. Mini-Review Paper (.pdf)
2. PowerPoint Presentation (.ppt)
3. Recorded Video (.mp4)

Compress the folder into a ZIP file and upload it to the Final Project folder on the online platform.

4. Evaluation Criteria

Component	Weight	Details
Paper Selection & Relevance	15%	Quality and appropriateness of chosen papers
Structure & Organization	15%	Logical flow and completeness of sections
Critical Analysis & Synthesis	30%	Depth of comparison and originality
Writing Quality	15%	Clarity, coherence, and academic tone
Presentation & Communication	25%	Effectiveness and quality of delivery

5. Important Notes

- Plagiarism or AI-generated writing will not be accepted.
- Late submissions will not be graded unless approved in advance.
- Use proper citations style and a reference list at the end of the report (APA or IEEE format)

If you have any questions or need further clarification, feel free to reach out before the submission deadline.

Good luck, and I look forward to reading your insightful comparisons!
